Well, this is it!! As they say in Hollywood - "Cut! It's a wrap!" I've enjoyed writing the 2022 Knews Notes and will be publishing 3 additional issues in late Fall, mid-Winter, and early Spring! Please continue to send me feedback and community news.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation for the team effort it takes to publish these issues:

Thanks Karly Becker, for twisting my arm and nudging me to take on this endeavor - you were a great mentor.
Thanks Maria Stonecipher, for being my professional proofreader.
Thanks Annarose, for the additional proofreading & patience with meeting deadlines.
Thanks Maureen Clegg, for sharing your book reviews.
Additional thanks to Linda Rilke-Murer (I couldn't have pulled off the HS Graduation list without your input), and Roberta Anderson, Phil Passaro, Don Lynch, Celeste Pearce, Marie Knox, and Florence Iavarone for always promptly providing me with activity information. Finally, thanks to all the cooperative "neighbors" I interviewed.

I wish everyone a wonderful "off season" whether you spend it full-time in the Knolls or just visit until next summer.

Happy Labor Day!!

"Never go to bed angry!"

THIS 'N' THAT

FYI - The FULL HARVEST MOON will occur Sept. 9th-10th-11th. Its name "harvest" stems from the moonrise that comes soon after sunset resulting in an abundance of bright moonlight early in the evening. This traditionally aided farmers when harvesting their summer-grown crops. Unlike other moons, it will rise very near sunset and will appear for SEVERAL nights instead of one. Enjoy!

The Snowbirds of the Knolls

Let's face it, the winters are long in Connecticut. No matter how much we wish the summers would feel longer, it's an annual disappointment when the summers fly by too quickly, and the winters drag on and on.

Every year more CK residents head south to Florida, whether it's for 1 month, or 2, 3, 4, 5 months, or the true snowbirds – 6 months/1-day residents of Florida. BOOK REVIEW – The Last Thing He Told Me by Laura Dave Another good mystery! Before Owen disappears, he smuggles a note to his beloved wife of one year: Protect her. Despite her confusion and fear, Hannah knows the note refers to Owen's sixteen-year-old daughter, Bailey. As a typical teen, Bailey wants nothing to do with her new stepmother. Hannah quickly realizes her husband is not who he claimed to be. She cannot get him on the phone, the FBI arrests Owen's boss, and the US Marshal and federal agents arrive at her Sausalito home unannounced. Hannah suspects Bailey may be the key to figuring out Owen's true identity—and why he really disappeared. Hannah and Bailey set out to discover the truth. But as they start putting together the pieces of Owen's past, they soon realize they're also building a new future—one neither of them could have anticipated. This book is hard to put down with its plot twists, family drama, and the shocking final, heartbreaking turn.

Happy Reading – Maureen Clegg
