First Day of Winter

We ended Labor Day with a fantastic "White" Party hosted by Michael Craven and his family and friends. This was followed by an early September heat wave, which was then followed by cold and rainy weather. Mother Nature cannot seem to make up her mind! On Saturday, October 28th we reached a record-breaking temperature of 80° which had some people heading to the beach and sharing sand space with those out-of-the-water docks! Despite the inconsistent weather, the foilage is stunning.

my face when it's almost October and supposed to be hoodie weather, but it's still 90° in Fall.

I hope you are enjoying all the activities that come with the Fall season. Aside from raking leaves and sadly putting away outdoor furniture for the winter, there are plenty of fun activities: fall festivals, pumpkin and/or apple picking, and for some, plenty of football game viewing (even though we are still awaiting the results of baseball's World Series winner).

Please stay in touch and help me keep the pulse of the Knolls - a Happy Place for all of us! Information and pictures can be sent to me at cknotesdenise@gmail.com.

Enjoy this Autumn Season...

Ⓚ THIS 'N' THAT Ⓚ

While many were closing up their homes, taking out their boats, and saying farewell to summer, other Knolls neighbors were continuing their usual activities. The Mahjong women continued to meet weekly through October and the pickleball players will continue to play until that first snow flake falls!

The trouble with owning your own home is that no matter where you sit, you're seeing something that needs to be done!

As we approach a new year—2024, there will be plenty of activities galore. The Knolls will celebrate its 95th year, with a party that will be filled with good cheer. So look forward to a new calendar coming your way, To be filled with great memories to mark each day.

Look for the next issue of the Knews Notes in early February 2024.
