Another busy week in the Knolls!

Week #2 of camp has been completed. The Clambake was a great success thanks to Danielle & Greg Thomas and their fantastic crew! The Pancake Breakfast was another huge success thanks to the LaMonte family and their egg scrambling/pancake making gang!

We still have plenty to look forward to with a full July calendar. I'll meet you on the ballfield tomorrow night for the CKCP hosted Bocce Night. It's always a fun gathering - and quite competitive for those who play bocce. (I just go there to eat and mingle.) The picnic is just around the corner, and we are seeking new volunteers - please see attached flyer and sign up for one (or more) slot(s) in this all-day event. Even if you are a "regular annual" volunteer, please sign up in the appropriate slot so we can better manage the shifts. The picnic is followed by our Candlewood Golf Classic which is being held at the Isle this year. Get your reservation in early for this event on July 21st.

We wait ten months of the year looking forward to these two months of summer activities and it all goes by so fast. So please, summer, please slow down!!

Feel free to send me any information you would like to be included in future issues.

Send to knotesdenise@gmail.com

Enjoy your weekend...

COMMUNITY NEWS

The Softball Game held on Saturday, July 1st was a "hit." So many players showed up, they played two games. There were injuries galore, but no ambulances. The Fleischmann, Hyland, Joyce, and Luburger houses were unscathed despite the onslaught of hits on their properties. (And no cars were dented...thank goodness.)
