Goodbye Winter - Hello Spring. Another season has arrived and once again, our mailbox station planters have shed the winter bouquets and now display spring blossoms.

Pretty soon the sweepers will come in and wipe away the sand on the streets and any reminders of winter.

After returning from Florida, I murmured that popular saying - "Home Sweet Home" and sure enough - it really is sweet. I found myself taking in all the new enhancements in the Knolls. The mailbox station, children's library, pavers, playground, and numerous other improvements reminded me of the beauty and wonder of the Knolls. Spring is a time for proms, graduations, bridal & baby showers, weddings, gardening, home improvements, and, finally, preparations for a busy summer.

Remember to contact the office to sign up for our email blasts which will keep you posted regarding dates for street sweeping, camp registration, putting in docks, etc.

Please send me any updates (college graduations, weddings, babies, and other milestones) for our upcoming Memorial Day issue (May 26th) kicking off the 2023 season.

Flowers aren't the only things that bloom in Spring. At the end of March, alongside our existing Adult Lending Library, an additional one appeared for our children!

Thanks, Dave Clegg
for constructing the Kid's Lending Library -

BABY

BOOM

The Murphy Family (5 North Beach Drive – one of the original homes built in the Knolls) is experiencing their own 6th generation baby boom. The “cottage” is currently owned by the five sons of Rosemary & Jack Murphy. Grandparents Christine & David Murphy welcomed two new additions to their family from their daughters.

On November 5th, Murphy Knolls O’Reagan (left photo) was born in Asheville, NC. The 6lb 2oz 20” baby was given the middle name “Knolls” by her parents Lauren & Charlie as an ode to great grandparents Rosemary & Jack. Murphy joins big brother CJ, age 2. On November 25th, Samantha Lucia Asaro (right photo) was born 7lb 3oz 22.5” in Atlanta, GA to parents Rachelle and Kenny.

Both girls will be visiting the Knolls in July!

Dan Hamilton and his wife Beth are proud grandparents to their 1st grandchild – Jack Thomas Hamilton.

Dan’s son, Brendan, and daughter-in-law, Mary, welcomed their 7lb 6oz newborn on January 29th. Congrats to the Hamilton families.

And to think, Brendan was only 11 months old when Dan became our CK maintenance man!

Grandparents Maria & Scott Stonecipher welcomed their 6th grandchild on February 7th.

Teagan Annette Dorcy made her arrival at 1:32am at 7lbs 5 oz and 20.5”. Parents Heather and Brian Dorcy, along with big sister Brooklyn and big brother Bryson are looking forward to a fun-filled summer in the Knolls.
