So, this is the last Knews Notes for our summer season. I plan to publish a Fall, Winter, and Spring issue to get us through the year until Memorial Day 2024.

For many of our summer residents, the White Out Party tomorrow night will be their last hurrah until next summer. Officially, the start of Fall is 2:50am on September 23rd, so if the sun is out, I plan to grab my chair and respond to "The Beach is Calling."

Last Friday the weather held out for the Beers of the Knolls, however, one of the kegs did not - so the men remained at one house. Sometimes you just must improvise when traditions hit a snafu.

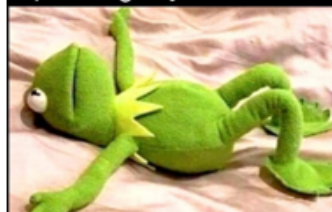

I wish all the teachers returning to school the best of luck for a stress-free school year. You are truly the foundation of our future generation and deserve our utmost respect.

I'd like to extend a sincere "thank you" to Maria Stonecipher for being my proofreader this summer. And "thanks" to the Board for giving me free reign to write and publish the issues as I see fit. For those of you who complimented me for my creativity throughout the summer, you helped me make my decision to continue as editor for 2024.

Please stay in touch and help me keep the pulse of the Knolls - a Happy Place for all of us! Information and pictures can be sent to me at cknotesdenise@gmail.com.

Enjoy your weekend...
Denise

COMMUNITY NEWS

August 25th

"There was a great turn-out for this year's Beers of the Knolls. We had about 70 guys show up. The weather cooperated. There was an equipment malfunction with one of the kegs, so we only went to one house. A very special thanks to Mike Rail for hosting the whole evening. The men went through pulled pork, coleslaw, BBQ chicken, and pasta. This was followed by 15 large pizza pies. We finished one keg of beer, 500 cans of beer, 7 quarts of bourbon and 2 handles of vodka with numerous cigars - all in 6 hours. It was a great night. We are looking forward to joining our new hosts for next year: Chris Lewik and Endy & Carl Anderson."

Around the Town

CANDLEWOOD LAKE CONNECTICUT

Saturday, September 9th is a very busy day in the Town of New Fairfield.

The annual free "Shred-It" event will take place at the Company A Firehouse located at 302 Ball Pond Road from 9am to 12noon. Bring your bags, totes, boxes, or handfuls of papers - all documents are shredded on site. Donations will be accepted and appreciated.

Then head to the Senior Center parking lot for the Community Service Club of NF's

"Junk in a Trunk." This is the largest group tag sale in town and will be held from 9am to 3pm. (Rain date: Sunday, Sept. 10th)

From 12 to 5pm Parks N' Rec will host the New Fairfield Town Fair at Memorial Field (behind Town Hall). Over 50 local businesses and organizations will be represented, and the fair will include food, live music, crafts, an aerial & acrobatic show, and NF Fire Department truck showcase. (Rain date: Sunday, Sept. 10th)

Movie Reviews

In theaters August 25th:

Gran Turismo: Based on a True Story

This movie is about a teenager, Jann Mardenborough, who rose from "gamer" to real-life car racer. Orlando Bloom plays Danny Moore, a marketing extraordinaire who goes to GT proposing a competition in which the top seven gamers will train to become an actual racer for the Nissan team. He recruits Jack Salter, a veteran crew chief and former driver, who is skeptical that these keyboard warriors possess the physical and competitive acumen to become professionals. For Mardenborough and Jack, it's us against the world competing against teams who are hostile to simulator racers. It's an underdog story that fully invests the viewer in the cares of an unassuming teenager.

The Hill (in theaters since August 11th)

Another true story in which Dennis Quaid, who loves making uplifting sports movies, plays a pastor trying to convince his son Rickey Hill, who has a spinal disease, to quit dreaming of becoming a pro baseball player.

Book Reviews

Upcoming books to read:

23 1/2 Lies by James Patterson (September 12th)
From the best-selling author comes a trio of thrillers, each with some awfully mean characters. They include "Fallen Ranger," about a Texas Ranger hunting down thieves, one of whom might be a formerly esteemed fellow Ranger gone bad.

Holly by Stephen King (September 5th)
King's chilling latest revisits the private detective Holly Gibney (Mr. Mercedes, The Outsider), who's on the case of a string of disappearances and contending with strange husband-and-wife professors as suspects.

On Wednesday, August 30th at 9:36pm, we had a rare "Blue Supermoon." While this full moon does not look blue, it is considered the brightest full moon of 2023. It is a rare event because the next blue supermoon will not take place until 2037.

Vacation Joke

A New Yorker, a Nebraskan, a Georgian, and a Floridian were driving to Vegas on vacation. After a few hours in the car, the Nebraskan suddenly rolls down his window, opens his bag, and starts chucking corn out the window. "What are you doing that for?", the others exclaim. "Back in Nebraska, everywhere I look I see corn. I'm going on vacation, and I don't want to see any corn for a couple weeks." The Georgian replies, "You know what? You're right; I'm sick of seeing peaches all over Georgia. I don't know why I brought them with me." He opens his window and dumps his bag of peaches out. The Floridian, feeling inspired, opens the door and kicks the New Yorker out.
