BOCCE IS BACK!

Thank you to Phil Passaro and his CKCP crew for putting on a fabulous Bocce event! The field, lit by golfcart lights, was filled with kids and adults cheering on their favorite bocce teams. Bobby Maloney and Brian Stroh were our winners with Tim Mackey and Josh Fine a close second! Thanks for a great time!

CANDLEWOOD KNOLLS CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

Week 3 of CKCP was another jam-packed week, kicking off with the biggest bubble bath you have ever seen – a FOAM Party ... with the added benefit of a clean camper when they returned home! We are happy to report that the Knolls were the victors in our first swim meet of the year against the Isle ... the first of many we hope! Thursday was especially fun due to Ice Cream Night followed by a Magic Show! Everyone's a kid when it comes to ice cream and magic!

Won't You Be My Neighbor...

The "Newcomers" ...

The Ventura Family discovered Candlewood Lake a few years ago when they were visiting friends in a neighboring community known as Knollcrest. They joined them in the annual Illuminated Boat Parade and while cruising and enjoying the beautiful lake views they decided to begin looking for a weekend getaway. Domenic works for NYU Langone Hospital as a Senior Citrix Engineer/Ad Engineer and Barbara is a Licensed Real Estate agent at Keller William Legendary. Along with their children, Andrew (age 12), Ava (age 9) and their two dogs (Blaze and Bazel) and a cat (Sammy), they reside in Franklin Square, LI, NY. It was a dream for them to buy a getaway home while the children were small and to start making memories they will cherish for a lifetime. In 2019 they purchased their Knolls cottage on 1 Almargo and whenever they can they love coming up to the lake and entertaining friends and family. The photo was taken from their friend's boat on the day they closed on their house (which can be seen in the far distance

And "Old Timers" ...

Three generations of Blaines have occupied the house at 24 Lakeshore South. Vinnie Blaine (1921-2009) was raised in Danbury CT and loved sailing on the lake with his family. As a surprise, his wife, Betty (1922-2014), an IBM employee, bought the land in the Knolls in the early 1940's while Vinnie was overseas in the Navy. In 1945, Vinnie built the summer home along with his father, brother, and uncle (who was a contractor). While raising their three daughters in Trumbull, CT, they rented the house for a few years and eventually they all spent their summers in the Knolls. Linda Heydt (Parker, CO), Betsy Watson (Santa Barbara, CA) and Nancy (New Hampshire & NYC) were CK campers and as a family they enjoyed all the amenities and activities our community offers. Vinnie was very passionate about sailing and besides his daughters, he enjoyed teaching everyone how to sail. When Linda and her husband Bill had twin boys (Stephen and Brian) 1 1/2 years after their daughter, Blaine, was born, it was time to add an extension to the house to accommodate their growing families. The sisters still enjoy reunions at the lake in the fall months and Linda's children (3rd generation) are annual visitors during the summer enjoying reunions with their lifelong friends in the Knolls.
