The Family Picnic was a huge success and Mother Nature was kind enough to let us have a rain-free day. Florence and her crew worked tirelessly prior to, during, and after the picnic.

A special thanks goes to our new volunteers who hopefully will continue to assist in the future! And much gratitude is extended to those who have been working at the picnic year after year.

The Candlewood Golf Classic will be in full swing today and tonight and the Knolls has high hopes to retain the "cup" for 2023.

Vegas Night is our next big event on August 5th. A flyer is attached. Please make your reservations early so we can plan accordingly.

If you are interested in hosting an "end of summer" event on Labor Day Weekend (Saturday, September 2nd), please contact Florence Iavarone.

Saturday is your last chance to attend the NF Lions Club Carnival in town. Hopefully the weather will cooperate!

Feel free to send me any information you would like to be included in future issues. Send to cknotesdenise@gmail.com

Enjoy your weekend...
Denise

More picnic COMMUNITY NEWS

Here are some of the big winners at the picnic:

In the men's road race - Matthew Murphy narrowly beat Keegan Lewick, followed by Eric Eckleman. Meghan Stroh came in first, followed by Rebecca Fine in second, in the Women's race. Tommy Lamonte and his cousin Emma Crimson beat out Meghan Stroh and Bobby Maloney in the Canoe Races. Lily Knox won the children's potato sack race and the egg and spoon race. The water balloon toss was won by Erin Stroh and Bobby Maloney. The North prevailed over the South in the adult Tug of War.

There was no rain
The weather was fine.
Coolers were filled
With beer & wine.

They came for lunch,
They came for dinner,
They played some games,
And some were winners.

The Tug-of-war
Was very hard fought.
Too bad for the South,
The winners: the North.

The CK Family Picnic
Always brings good times,
I'm finished with this poem
Because I've run out of rhymes.
